INTRODUCTION BY EJU PRESIDENT

On behalf of the European judo Union I cordially welcome participants and guests of the European Championships Veterans.

This event means a lot for those judokas from different countries who started their path on the tatami when they were young, and now, when they are mature, it is a great opportunity to meet their friends, to spend one more time in close communication and to improve friendship and mutual understanding.

It is a great pleasure to realize that JUDO, our sport, which gives us so many benefits, such as new friends from all over the world, physical and spiritual harmony, sets up a good start for all the people who later can achieve remarkable goals and impressive results in their real life.

I hope you will enjoy these Championships and witness beautiful judo and demonstration of outstanding techniques by judo masters from all over Europe.

I thank the organizers for the work done and wish every one of you good luck and happiness!

Sincerely yours,

Sergey Soloveychik
President
European Judo Union
